NEWS AND NOTICES

.....

JOHN P. DOBEREINER of the faculty of education attended a meeting of the British Columbia Indian Advisory Committee in Nanaimo November 15. The topics under discussion were general and vocational education.

.....

A committee has been formed here to encourage participation in "Operation Crossroads Africa"; the scheme gives undergraduates and teachers from North America an opportunity to spend a summer working with Africans in areas under development. Further information is available from committee members: PROFESSOR NEIL SWAINSON (department of economics and political science), DR. WALTER BARSS (physics), and DR. KENNETH MOSS (chemistry), and JOHN THIES of the Students Council.

.....

The department of biology's latest study in marine sciences takes DR. D.V. ELLIS to the Straits of Georgia from December 6 to 10. He will be investigating the sediment macrofauna with geologist Dr. J.W. Murray of UBC. In other recent cruises, JACK LITTLEPAGE and DR. ARTHUR FONTAINE introduced undergraduates to techniques in marine research.

.....

A discussion paper on the implications of school libraries research for today's teachers and students was presented by PROFESSOR JEAN DEY of the faculty of education at a recent conference on elementary education. The sessions were held in Banff November 10 to 13, under the auspices on the University of Alberta.

.....

DR. JOHN DEWEY of the department of physics chaired a scientific session in Washington's Pentagon last month. The working group of scientists, from Britain, the United States and Canada, investigated results of large-scale test explosions in Alberta and the Hawaiian Islands.

.....

A painting by DONALD HARVEY, instructor in fine arts in the department of education, has been purchased in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. It joins the Permanent Collection of Canadian Art housed in the Fathers of Confederation Art Gallery and Museum. The abstract impressionist work, "Barrier Break", won first prize at last year's Vancouver Contemporary Art Exhibition and Sale.

.....

Robert Quentin, director of Australia's National Theatre School and head of the department of drama at the University of New South Wales, visited Victoria last week during a tour of university drama departments in North America. Mr. Quentin was the guest of PROFESSOR ROGER BISHOP, head of the department of English, at Tuesday night's performance of "A View From the Bridge" at the Phoenix Theatre. He also met with the University committee in charge of developing plans for the new school of fine arts here.
